

Pioneering General Counsel Mary Ann Hynes to host a candid Vanguard Network discussion on “My 3 Biggest Mistakes That Have Made Me a Better Leader”

Sometimes the greatest learnings come the hard way. Longtime GC Mary Ann Hynes shares hers in an intimate, candid, confidential conversation with other leaders.

NEW YORK (PRWEB) March 08, 2021 -- The Vanguard Network, which uniquely supports C-suite members -- including General Counsels -- in building their leadership capabilities, today announced its first “Learning From Experience” virtual discussion. The one-hour session with legendary legal officer Mary Ann Hynes will take place on March 15 from 3 to 4 pm Eastern Time.

Hynes was the first female GC of a Fortune 500 company, counseled 17 CEOs, and is now a Senior Counsel at Dentons. She will candidly share her biggest mistakes along the way and how they made her a better leader.

The highly interactive session will be confidential, with participants encouraged to share their own “war stories.” The dialogue will be valuable to both GCs and C-suite leaders.

“We regularly host high level dialogues that focus on real-world challenges, with candid discussions about what works, and what does not,” said Ken Banta, founder and principal of the Vanguard Network. “The Mary Ann Hynes event launches a 'Learning from Experience' series, featuring some of the most experienced members of the Vanguard Network.”
