

Are You Ready for ESG: August 19, Noon - 1:30 EDT

A Vanguard Network Dialogue with Sally Curley and Brent Wood

NEW YORK (PRWEB) August 15, 2021 -- The Vanguard Network today announced an interactive Forum for C- Suite leaders, on ESG, one of the biggest challenges facing business today.

As part of Vanguard's Leading From Experience series, this online event will give leaders a chance to dialogue with experts on identifying and responding to new ESG accountabilities.

The session will be led by Sally Curley, a leading expert in ESG and former head of Investor Relations at Cardinal Health, and Brent Wood, EVP of Eastgroup Properties investment trust, where ESG expectations and commitments are at the top of the leadership agenda.

“ESG will be subject to government regulation and investor criteria - but what those will be are TBD, as are the potential benefits and costs of compliance,” said Ken Banta, founder and principal of The Vanguard Network. “This is a chance both to learn from others and share your own insights in an off-the-record environment.”

□ ~~This~~ event is open to members of The Vanguard Network. Other C-suite healthcare leaders can request an invitation and learn more about membership here http://bit.ly/LE2021_0819linkedin.

It is being underwritten by Debevoise and Plimpton LLC, and Humanigen, a clinical-stage biopharmaceutical company focused on preventing and treating an immune hyper-response called cytokine storms. Humanigen has developed a highly promising COVID therapeutic.

The conversation is one of an array of membership benefits of the Vanguard Network, which organizes events, publishes content and connects C-suite leaders.
