

Life Sciences C-Suite Leaders To Explore “Reinventing Life Sciences Leadership” at January Vanguard Forum in Cambridge

Life Sciences leaders to gather in Cambridge, MA for a confidential, highly-interactive look at the future of the industry. Hosted by The Vanguard Network.

NEW YORK (PRWEB) November 09, 2022 -- The Vanguard Network today announced its annual Life Sciences leadership Forum on January 23 in Cambridge, MA. The event marks a return to face-to-face Vanguard events for C-Suite life sciences and healthcare leaders.

The day-long Forum includes confidential, highly interactive sessions designed to reflect the real-life challenges facing today’s life sciences executives. The Forum will cover timely and important topics like balancing innovation with economics, perception of the sector, technology, and leading Gen-Z teams. Previous participants report that they most value the peer discussions and problem solving opportunities.

“Life sciences has been in overdrive for nearly three years and now is the time to reflect and recalibrate,” said Vanguard Network founder and principal Ken Banta. “The Forum is a chance to sit with peers and think about what success will look like moving forward.”

The Forum is open to C-suite executives in life sciences and healthcare. Life sciences executives may register at https://docs.google.com/forms/d/e/1FAIpQLSfG9qeZPX-xOHsp6jXrUbXliZ9hz3COF7SBHhSl6z_kusBhXA/viewform?usp=sf_link

The Forum is just one of an array of membership benefits of the Vanguard Network, which organizes events, publishes content and connects C-suite leaders.

Ken Banta is a top management advisor who works with CEOs and senior executives on leadership, organizational transformation and corporate positioning. Ken has helped to lead eleven successful global transformations and turnarounds, and has advised on many more. He writes regularly for HBR and is a Contributing Author of “HBR’s 10 Must Reads for CEOs.”

Vanguard’s roster of more than 100 advisors and session leaders includes David Pyott, past CEO of Allergan, Ashley McEvoy (J&J), Jeremy Levin, (Ovid Therapeutics), Cameron Durrant (Humanigen), and Tom Sabatino, GC of Tenneco and past GC of Aetna, United Airlines, Walgreens and Schering-Plough.
